N. K. of the U. O. G. C.

Twenty degrees below zero Wednesday morning.

W. H. Bryant was in town last week.

J. A. Brown is visiting friends in Maine.

Wm. M. Brooks, our veteran teacher, is teaching his fifth school. He is teaching at North Norway.

If you want a good one or try call at C. H. Noble's. Atwood's best oysters constantly on hand.

R. N. Messer, the story teller and whistler, was at the Elm House Tuesday night.

Mrs. Alice Fuller's health has considerably improved and she presided at the Seving's bank Tuesday p. m.

Miss Lizzie Rowe of Lewiston, is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Chas. E.
Waterhouse.

W. C. Pierce has just received a large lot of 5, 10, 15 and 25 cent goods.
Call and see them.

Harp's Geographies have been introduced in the public schools by the S. S. Com.

E. A. Morse has fifty cords of poplar wood which he has cut and stacked for the paper mills at Yarmouth.

Chas. Knight cut his foot badly Friday morning, while chopping wood for C. B. Cummings. A physician dressed the wound.

G. B. Cummings has four or five hundred cords of stove wood for sale.
Orders may be left with him or at the Furniture Store.

Ross Kelly one of the scholars of the Upper Primary school cut his knee with an axe a few days ago. He was out Sunday on crutches.

Norway Drug Store is the place to buy window shades. A new lot of fine ones just received. Shades fitted and hung if desired.

The assemblies at the Elm House are popular. Good attendance and excellent music. Young's music team can't be beat.

An overturned sleigh was the cause of Rev. Miss Agnes's horse running wild. The horse ran around the station square and came to a stand still. The fender of the sleigh was demolished.

The installation of officers of Norway Commandery No. 24th, U. O. G. C., took place at L. O. G. C. hall, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21st. C. P. Whitman, D. G. C., was the installing officer.

Miss Lizzie Watson's health is still poor. Since the cold weather she has been confined to the house the most of the time. She has a lung trouble and it is hoped with the return of warm weather her health will improve.

Clara Dowd, the Elm House table girl, says the almanacs of the Dominion of Canada are public property and she can't see why S. L. Crockett should charge $5 and 10 cents for almanacs that are no better than Canadian product.

The Ladies' Circle of the Congregational Society will hold a sociable at the vestry of the Church on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The public are invited. The next circle is expected to be held by the gentlemen.

R. W. Lombard picked up a rope and pocket book in the street opposite the Elm House Wednesday noon. The pocket book contained $27.00 in money with other papers. Mr. Lombard brought the pocket book to this office and word was sent to its owner at Bol-ster's Mills where the pocket book could be found.

Thomas Swain died of pneumonia Wednesday night. His wife died the Sunday previous of the same disease.
Mr. Swain moved here from Lovell last spring. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved relatives. Four children survive, two boys and two girls. One of the daughters married Chas. H. Hazen of this place. The Swain was buried Tuesday, Rev. A. Wiswall officiating.
M. R. Kervin manager.

The Citizens' Temperance Meeting Sunday p. m. was well attended. The report of the committee was read and we suggested in our last the citizens meetings were of short duration as the body voted to hold the meeting in future under the auspices of the Good Templars Lodge. This we think is a wise move and the best thing that could be done. Next meeting will be held at the Church, Friday evening, Jan. 24th, under the auspices of the Good Templars.
